SUMMER

FALL

WINTER

Summertime and the Livin' is Easy!

The hot days and nights of the summer are blistering us already and it wasn't even officially summer. Now that the clock has turned the official solstice the weather is giving us a break, for how long remains to be seen.

The odd occurrences of the year continue.

Oddness No.1: Ed Cook has broken his leg sources say by falling from a garage roof. Seems Ed will be out of commission for the riding season, but we know Ed and figure he'll be up and at em when the ski season rolls around. Best wishes Ed, get well soon, we miss you.

Oddness No. 2: Frank crashed his Paris-Dakar on June 16th. I was not seriously injured but the PD will require some major repair work and will probably be at BMW of Detroit for a few more weeks.
