BUSINESS AT HAND

OLD BUSINESS

Nancy Berry got pricing on a banner and t-shirts. The banner will cost $40. As a club we decided on using the BMWROT club shield. Jerzee and Gildan 50/50 t-shirts run $8-$9 each for short sleeve. Long sleeve is $3 more. Size XL is an extra $1 and $2 for XXL. An order sheet will be created and orders held until then.

NEW BUSINESS

Our fearless leader, Mark, was the only sole to brave the snow, sleet and rain on his scooter. Hand that man a coffee!

The mileage chart was passed about for the entering of beginning mileage. If you weren't able to sign-in then please email Mark your info. He'll need bikes make/model, year and mileage. You'll find Marks contact info on the back of the newsletter

Delbert gave us details for the group ride. The AMA museum and Iron Pony is a 3 hour ride. We'll meet at the old Wendys on 280, fill the bellies and roll out at 8:00 A.M. We'll stop in Upper Sandusky for "needs". Lunch will be after the visit to the BMW dealership. Mark your calendars for April 16th. The rain date is April 23rd, which is Easter weekend. If necessary, we'll start a phone chain to let others know.

Our annual spring camp-out will be held at The Pit this year. We have scheduled June 3rd-5th and cost will be $10 per adult, per night. Kids camp free. There have been no improvements and will have the same port-a-potties, so status quo. Mike can get us steaks for our dinner. Friday night we'll play by ear. We'll do a head count and run in town to get stuff... or you can eat on your own in town. Firewood is no longer available but for a fee, about $60, they can get us some wood. We have promised to not advertise this event but only to the club and friends of the club.
